HERE I STAND: A Life of Martin Luther

by Roland H. Bainton

The authoritative, unforgettable biography of Martin Luther, the great religious leader, who entered a monastery as a youth and who, as a man, shattered the structure of the medieval church.

Luther the Reformer

by James M. Kittelson

Engaging and authoritative, Kittelson's important and popular biography is here — represented with a new cover and new preface by the author. His single-volume biography has become a standard resource for those who wish to delve into the depths of the Reformer without drowning in a sea of scholarly concerns.

Brand Luther

by Andrew Pettegree

Luther came of age with the printing press, and the path to glory of neither one was obvious to the casual observer of the time. Printing was, and is, a risky business—the questions were how to know how much to print and how to get there before the competition. Pettegree illustrates Luther's great gifts not simply as a theologian, but as a communicator, indeed, as the world's first mass-media figure, its first brand.

Martin Luther's 95 Theses

Edited by Stephen Nichols

Prepared with an introduction, explanatory notes and illustrations—all to help readers in discerning the significance of Luther's call to reformation. The Ninety-Five Theses are reproduced in their entirety.
